FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE --GARNER, Iowa, February 18, 2009 --- Aspen Hills, Inc. is voluntarily recalling certain frozen cookie dough products that contain peanuts, because the peanuts used to make the cookie dough were supplied by Peanut Corporation of America and may be contaminated with Salmonella.

Salmonella is an organism which can cause serious and sometimes fatal infections in young children, the elderly, and persons with weakened immune systems. Healthy persons infected with Salmonella often experience fever, diarrhea, nausea, vomiting and abdominal pain. In rare circumstances, infection with Salmonella can result in the organism getting into the bloodstream and producing more severe illnesses such as arterial infections (i.e. infected aneurysms), endocarditis and arthritis.

The following brand names and flavors, with codes printed on the container, are included in the recall. Distribution was nationwide to Aspen Hills, Inc. fund-raising customers, which occurred September 23, 2008 through December 13, 2008:
